

A HEART FOR JUSTICE: MEET ROBBIE PFEIFFER

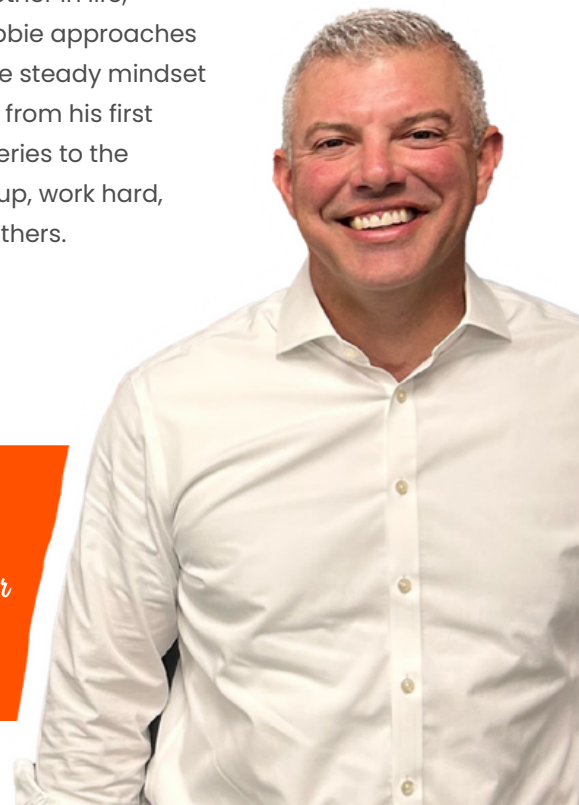

From the football fields of Carrollton to the courtrooms of Dallas, Robbie Pfeiffer's story is all about grit, growth, and gratitude. A true Texan through and through, Robbie has never been one to shy away from hard work—or a good challenge. "I've had a job since I was 15," he says with a laugh. "I've done everything from cleaning golf carts and bartending to operating a forklift." Each experience, he explains, taught him something about people—and about perseverance.

After high school, Robbie pursued his dream of playing college football at the University of North Texas, where he learned the value of discipline and teamwork both on and off the field. When his athletic journey came to an end, he shifted his focus toward academics, spending time at a local community college before transferring to Portland State University, and later returning home to complete his degree at the University of Texas at Dallas. His academic drive ultimately led him to Pepperdine University School of Law, where he earned his law degree—a milestone made even more meaningful when his daughter, Olivia, was born the summer after his first year. "That moment changed everything," Robbie shares. It reminded me that every goal is worth the grind when you're doing it for something bigger than yourself." Robbie's legal career began in family law—but it didn't take long for him to find his true calling

"I spent a year in family law and quickly realized it wasn't for me," he admits. "But when I joined the Dallas County District Attorney's Office, everything clicked." What started as a plan to gain a few years of trial experience turned into an 18½-year career, during which he prosecuted countless cases—from assaults and intoxication-related offenses to capital murders. "It was demanding, but deeply rewarding work," he says. "Every case mattered because every victim mattered."

Now, Robbie brings that same dedication and compassion to his work at Snellings Injury Law.

"From my first vibe check with the team, I knew this was where I wanted to be," he says. "Everyone here—from our attorneys to our support staff—cares deeply about doing right by people. That's rare, and it's something I'm proud to be part of." When he's not advocating for clients, you'll likely find Robbie on the golf course (where the feeling isn't always mutual, he jokes), on a mountain road trip, or cheering on his Dallas teams the Cowboys, Mavericks, Stars, and Rangers. Whether in life, law, or leisure, Robbie approaches it all with the same steady mindset that's carried him from his first job bagging groceries to the courtroom: show up, work hard, and do good by others.

"Every step I've taken—every challenge, every turn—led me right where I'm supposed to be. And I couldn't be more grateful to be here at Snellings Law."

20-MINUTE CHICKEN & VEGGIE STIR-FRY

Ingredients (serves 4):

- 2 cups cooked chicken (rotisserie or leftover works great)
- 2 cups mixed vegetables (fresh or frozen)
- 2 tbsp soy sauce
- 1 tbsp olive oil or sesame oil
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 1 cup cooked rice or quinoa (optional)

Instructions:

1. Heat oil in a large skillet over medium heat.
2. Add garlic and vegetables; sauté for 3–4 minutes.
3. Stir in chicken and soy sauce, and cook until heated through.
4. Serve alone or over rice for a complete meal.

Tip: Add a drizzle of honey or teriyaki sauce for extra flavor and it's still under 20 minutes total.

SPOT THE SAFE MOVE

Which action keeps you safest and legally protected after a minor car accident?

- A. Move your car immediately to the shoulder and leave without calling police.
- B. Take photos of the scene, exchange info, and contact authorities before leaving.
- C. Skip the report if there's no visible damage.

Answer: B – Always document the scene and contact authorities. Photos and reports protect you later if injuries or damage appear.

PROFIT WITH PURPOSE: BUILDING STRONGER BUSINESSES WITH LEAH MILLER

In this episode, Scott Snellings sits down with Leah Miller, founder of Firmly Profits to talk about what it really takes to create a profitable, sustainable business—without losing your sanity along the way. Leah shares how years of working as a CFO in the personal injury world shaped her philosophy: that numbers tell a story, and smart business owners know how to listen. She explains how getting firmly grounded in your financials allows you to make decisions from confidence, not chaos.

Her advice? Be intentional. Track your data, know your margins, and stop spreading yourself across too many platforms. Growth doesn't come from doing more—it comes from doing what matters most, well.

Scott and Leah also discuss how burnout often hides behind "busy." Taking time to rest, reflect, and realign can be the key to both profitability and longevity.

SAFE HOLIDAY TRAVEL STARTS WITH YOU

As the holiday season kicks into gear, millions of Texans will hit the road to visit friends and family. It's a time for joy, reflection, and connection—but also one of the most dangerous times of year for drivers. At Snellings Law, we're reminding everyone that safety should always come first.

According to the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, traffic crashes spike between Thanksgiving and New Year's, often caused by fatigue, impaired driving, and winter weather. Founding attorney Scott Snellings shared, "We see firsthand how quickly a holiday trip can turn tragic when safety is overlooked.

Our message is simple: plan ahead, drive responsibly, and arrive safely."

Snellings Law encourages families to take a few simple steps before traveling: rest well, avoid distractions, never drive under the influence, and check that your vehicle is road-ready. Keeping an emergency kit, blankets, and water on hand can make all the difference in an unexpected delay. "We want North Texas families to spend their holidays together, not dealing with the aftermath of a crash," said Snellings. "By putting safety first, we can make sure those memories stay joyful and lasting." For real-time travel updates, drivers can visit the Texas Department of Transportation (TxDOT) website for route and weather updates.

This season, the best gift you can give your loved ones is arriving home safely.

You focus on healing. We'll take care of everything else.

COMMUNITY SERVICE CORNER

This year, the Celina Young Professionals (CYP) made their debut by helping organize Celina's Oktoberfest! Shortly after launching the group, the Chamber invited us to assist with this beloved community event, and we were excited to jump in. Snellings Law proudly sponsored the water station, keeping attendees hydrated and safe—a contribution we were proud to make to support the festival. CYP members helped manage vendors and food trucks, ensured the event ran smoothly, and connected with locals throughout the day.

Our team also got in on the fun, participating in the beer stein holding competition and exploring all that Oktoberfest had to offer. Being part of Oktoberfest allowed CYP to engage with the community, support local businesses, and celebrate the spirit of Celina. We're proud to sponsor and participate in events like this and look forward to helping make more community gatherings a success in the future!
